

CHAUTAUQUA COUNTY 4-H HOG PROJECT MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

David A. Morrison

Frederick M. Johnson

In 2017, the families of David Morrison from Conewango Valley and Fred Johnson from Cottage established and contributed to a memorial scholarship to honor the dedication of these long time 4-H Hog Project volunteers.

The Chautauqua County 4-H Hog Project Memorial Award was established at the Chautauqua Region Community Foundation.

Through their quiet, but reliable support, for the betterment of the youth involved in the Project, they displayed their love for 4-H, their families and comradery of the 4-H program.

Both men saw continuing education as an important part of the future of 4-Hrs, thus their families' dedication to their memory.

Matt Morrison

It is the hope of the Morrison and Johnson families that other 4-H families help financially support this scholarship award by memorializing or honoring their own family members.

The families are dedicated to announce a minimum of a $500 scholarship award each year at the Chautauqua County Fair.

The recipient of this annual scholarship will have displayed the following qualities throughout their Project experience: dependable, respectful, self-directed, compassionate and attentive to learning.

This person may not necessarily be the most outwardly active, but shows strength of character that not only models the 4-H way to others, but shows the benefit of 4-H and the Hog Project in their lives.

Students may apply by April 1st annually.
Applications are available at your high school guidance office, CRCF, or the Ag Center.
